About This Game

Neon Space is a fun and simple but at the same time highly addictive game.

The goal of the game is to drive your little space ship from one end to another, dodging numerous obstacles, solving puzzles, opening new passages with checkpoints and discovering unique game mechanics by yourself. There are 50 levels, and there is also a cool medal system so you can always try your best for that shiny gold medal. If the game becomes too hard you can make it easier with your two in-game abilities slow and blink.

Slow ability- allows for the player to slow down everything except for the player itself.

Blink ability- allows you to jump a short distance. If you manage to time it right, you can even jump through some of the obstacles in the game.

These cool little tricks will have to be used on some levels to push you a bit closer to that medal. To make sure the game doesn't become too boring, new mechanics and tricks are being added to some levels, just to keep it spiced up through the entire play time.

Good solitaire game. Fair amount of levels. Some purchable abilities. 9/10. I like it, fun and surprisingly has replayability value(as you try to finish it with different teams to unlock all achievements) One minor gripe, why not have a quick resolve combat option? as it gets boring sometimes just waiting for 1 vs 1 combat to end.. Its a beautiful game but I have no idea whats going on.. Not like any mancala I've ever played and the multiplayer - which was the whole reason I bought it - doesn't work at all. So, i had a coupon. bought it with high hopes. got let down worse than i could have thought. bad controls. bad ui. no direction. just bad.. Remember Split/Second ? Well, in my opinion, this is the game that started the game mechanic where you race and blow up the environments at the same time.

It's the same as all the other arcade racers - it isn't even good, mind you - but it mixes racing with vehicular combat and destructible environments. Somewhat succesful. It's kind of fun at times, but Split/Second is better in every way so if I have to make a choice for you; go for that game.

[Rating: 64/100]

Not as fun as hoped.. Great Hack n Slash game, had a few issues they should have already resolved such as some pathfinding and so forth. Game is not overbearing, interesting settings (yes it's a biblical historical setting but there is no indoctrination or actual anti-anything or offensive sermonizing as one has come to expect from the religious stuff these days. it's just the setting and a bit of historical application, nothing more). Game is smooth and graphically nice and I noticed no bugs of any relevance so far, gameplay is the typical Diablo style and should be fun if you are into that genre. Certainly not a bad addition to your library. Having bought their arena style offshoot Cannan a while back and enjoyed it, this too has been fun and certainly not a bad buy.. Fun and simple game, yet quite challenging. Fantastic visuals with a great soundtrack. Worth the buy.. Great game. Fun, charming characters everywhere, pleasant sound and visuals.. Love it it's extremely mind numbing. Incredible game. It has amazingly vast landscapes that are so beautiful and makes wandering around very enjoyable. The painting aspect of the game is very enjoyable and the paintings resemble their captures exactly, which is accurate, because during the game it is learned that the protagonist's painting style is realism. Even though it is unknown of the type of folk the protagonist is, you interact with bearfolk, owlfolk, deerfolk, and many others. These characters mainly give you fetch quests, which do get boring and repetitive after a while, but usually reward in getting to go to new areas with new sights, which is worth it in my opinion. The game throws you many hours of quests so it takes many hours to complete them all. Traveling places is very slow, but there is a fast travel option and if you get the bicycle it is awesome!!! As for the graphics, they are very detailed and immersive and the lighting is incredible. The only downside is that the game was developed with the Unity game engine, which has trouble scaling all of the details in some of its vast scenes. I have a 1080 Ti and still get some frame drops, which gets annoying at times but the frames are usually fairly steady. I really enjoyed the music, especially the song played in Nava, and it gets stuck in your head very easily.

This game is not for everyone though. If you think you have lots of patience and find yourself appreciating games with amazing graphics, and love the exploration aspect in games, I'd say this game is for you!. If I could sum up my thoughts about this game in one word, it would be PogChamp. Super neat little puzzle game that takes some careful thinking and observation to beat within an hour. Love the work Escalio Games is doing and I can't wait for them to put the s in Games!
